officers deliberately assaulted Sokol, without his offering resistance, and with no apparent motive.

"In order to expedite matters, I will admit before anything Doubtless can say, officer Morgan is here, and I am willing to let him give the police side of this affair, and to accept it. I can see reason why he should not proceed to hear these witnesses."

Justice Murray shook his head. "It is not, Mr. Morgan," he said. "The police have rights, as well as other people, and I shall act just as if these witnesses were citizens, as in fact they are. I order the case postponed two weeks."

"Very well," attorney Roberts replied. "We will be on hand at the next hearing with plenty of witnesses."

Sokol, as witness in a court case, recently testified that money was extorted from him by a West End man on the pretense that it would secure "police protection."

Last week, the two patrolmen went to Sokol's home ostensibly to serve a warrant for an alleged offense upon a woman.

"Their version is that Sokol then resisted arrest; the Sokol version is that the patrolmen, delivered a beating to him. In any case, Sokol went to the hospital with his head injured, and semi-conscious from the terrific beating he received."

"He claimed that while they beat the man, the patrolman said: 'I want you to go to the hospital, and I want you to go to the hospital, and I want you to go to the hospital.'"

DOUBTLESS HE IS HERE.
Patrolman Doubtless was in to find at his home upon a result, it is stated, of the encounter with the police. The police surgeon has made three visits since the affair, and Dr. A. McLaughlin of Massachusetts street, Boston, Doubtless's family physician, was called in today.

Dr. McKelvey said: "Doubtless's condition is pretty bad. It is a great deal worse than it was when he was badly used up. He is considerably paralyzed, his right side is paralyzed, and his left arm is also affected."

"He had little sleep last night. He has been sleeping in bed, but he is not sleeping. He has been sleeping in bed, but he is not sleeping. He has been sleeping in bed, but he is not sleeping."

"I have prescribed liquid food, and he can eat as long as he wishes, wherever he feels pain."

"His chest pain is in bad shape. The doctor called. The patrolman is in bed, and he is not sleeping. He has been sleeping in bed, but he is not sleeping. He has been sleeping in bed, but he is not sleeping."

"He has been sleeping in bed, but he is not sleeping. He has been sleeping in bed, but he is not sleeping. He has been sleeping in bed, but he is not sleeping. He has been sleeping in bed, but he is not sleeping."

SAY 'GRAFT' CASE MOTIVE.
Charges of police graft were made by David Sokol and his son, Irving, a law student, are alleged to be the motive behind the beating of Sokol by the police.

These charges were made before Judge Brackett in the Municipal Court on May 25 and June 6, in connection with the case of Abraham Luchnick, a hawker of three street West End, who was charged with obtaining $100 from Sokol for alleged payment of the police.

Abraham Parker, a former sergeant, was charged with obtaining $100 from Sokol for alleged payment of the police.

Encouragement in New York Figures

By International News Service.
New York, Aug. 14.—Health department officials were greatly encouraged today by the latest figures on the infantile paralysis epidemic. During the 24 hours ending at 10 a. m. there were 11 deaths, but only 12 new cases were reported.

The first time since the epidemic became severe, there were more deaths than new cases. Dr. H. H. Brown, health commissioner, said that the figures were encouraging.

SODOM AS BAD AS NEW YORK, SAYS MYERS

The Rev. Dr. Cortlandt Myers of Boston, having taken note of the night life of New York, denies it is as wonderful or as naughty as it pretends to be.

"You have nothing like in New York which is not to be found in many cities of less renown," he said yesterday to a large congregation in the First Church, One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street and Manhattan avenue, New York.

"Given the same life, which is very often referred to as the New York life, is not possible in this city. New York is quite as bad, and Boston and elsewhere were quite as bad."

In another part of the sermon Dr. Myers said:

"Hail the men in New York driving automobiles today about by operating wheelchairs. But they don't know it because they don't know themselves. New York should take the advice of Socrates: 'Know thyself.'"

"Too hasty through life so fast that you never get acquainted with yourself. You talk too much and say too little. You speak without thinking and then forget what you say."

"When you have done what Socrates advised, you must follow with what Marcus Aurelius advised—'Control thyself.' And then you must be what Jesus Christ advised—'Thyself.'"

"Ten complaints of the high cost of living while you cut across three yards long and three inches thick. Many who complain of the high cost of living do so because their greatest expenditure is for gasoline."

"What we ought to consider is not the high cost of living, but the cost of living high. It is not an easy life to live a Christian life. It costs a lot, but its compensations are worth many times the cost."

DANGER IN "VOTES" DELAY, SAYS HUGHES

By International News Service, Spokane, Wash., Aug. 14.—The Courier of Alene District of Idaho claimed the attention of Charles E. Hughes this morning. Muttering over to Court of Alene after an automobile parade in Spokane, where he and Mrs. Hughes spent Sunday, the Republican Presidential nominee addressed a meeting of miners. He dwelt upon the relations of capital and labor and advocated a protective tariff and "sound Americanism."

Returning to Spokane, Mr. Hughes addressed a meeting of women. He said his attitude toward suffrage was in some ways original. He believed in it because it was right, not also because every delay in granting the vote to women breeds danger. The shortest cut should be taken, he declared, because sex bitterness and sex antagonism are one of the worst poisons the nation can have. After an address to the general public early this evening Mr. Hughes will leave for Tacoma.

Sunlight Grows the Hops but Ruins the Brew

You can't take pictures without light—neither can you grow hops without sunlight.

Yet—

Light ruins exposed negatives just as it ruins the wholesomeness of beer exposed to light.

Ultra violet rays of light acting on beer work a chemical change, ruining the wholesomeness, in fact, decomposing the protein (albumin), impairing the nutritive value. But not in Schlitz beer.

Schlitz Brown Bottle Keeps Out the Light

thereby protecting its purity. That's why it tastes so good. Its nutritive value is unimpaired. It is not enough to make pure beer, it must be kept pure.

The Schlitz logo is written in a large, bold, cursive script. The 'S' is particularly large and stylized, with a long horizontal stroke that extends to the left. The letters are thick and black.

Second Mass. Infantry Headquarters, 11. Pans, Tex., Aug. 14—Battery A of the First Infantry and the Ninth Regiment, which played the first of a series of three games for the Massachusetts Border championship yesterday, this night, 14-15, but were forced to hustle every inch of the game.

No World's Series game was ever fought harder or stirred more rivalry. The game was played on the Camp Cotton diamond within pistol shot of the Mexican national.
Monday's game will be played in the Lombard yard, near the border.

Battery A defeated the other battery, 6 to 4, in a game which was regiment and turned to the "fighting pitch," which has been defeated only once since reaching the Rio Grande.
The Ninth Infantry regulars beat the Ninth's players before they were announced, but were whipped in the second game.

BORROW TWO PLAYERS.
The "Mexican battery" borrowed two players from other sections of the Regiment, Harrison of B Battery, who proved to be the best pitcher of the Regiment, and Baker of the Sanitary Company. Harrison was relieved by Swan at the end of the first inning.

Holden, the crack batsman, who was in the Olympic games in Sweden, pitched through the strike line, and the Ninth's pitcher, who

O'Leary Touts Himself Claims Dundee a Set-up

By RINGSIDE.
If Johnny O'Leary's hunch comes true, and it is really a fa-Flash has considerable on Johnny Dundee, the noted New York 'lightweight, then the members of the Armory A. A. are about to be treated to the biggest surprise that has been pulled in New York city, handling the affair of since that night last November when Mike Glover treated Hon. Ted (Kid) Lewis to a boxing lesson.

Dundee is all class. He's the fastest, cleverest and trickiest boxer Ever known in the world and since the only Abo Attoli crashed in his clips, pudistically speaking, No. 6, the former king of the featherweights is not dead, far be it! He is very much alive, dividing his time these days between running his shoe store in New York city, handling the affair of months and rendering his monologue over the Low and other big time.

Dundee is an undisputed topkicker. He's a very efficient boxer. He's

Record Entry All Ready for Meet at Framingham

Framingham bids fair to have the best meeting of the Bay State circuit, August 12 to 17 inclusive. The entry is very large and promises exciting races.

Many stables from the Ohio, New York and Pennsylvania circuits have come East to begin the Fall fair season and are breaking in at Framingham. This will lend new life to the Bay State circuit and will mean keener racing.

One hundred and sixteen horses in all will tax the capacity of the stables at the historic track, a record that has been unexcelled since the inception of the South Middlesex Agricultural Society at this race course, and one that will not be equalled for some time to come.

One of the features of the meeting will be the coming together of Earl, Jr., one of Walter Coe's proteges and owned by Arthur Jones of Dorchester, and the Colored, owned by Mr. Phillips of Beverly, the famous Lester Dore's stable of Haverhill.

These two Grand Circuit pacers meet for the first time in the freeforall pace on Thursday. Neither has been beaten this year when well sponsored, and both will prove a heart-breaking race for horses.

Baron, owned by John O. Beeg of Boston, will be there to take the measure of the fourteen trotters.
Baron is a practically unbeaten trotter this year and the biggest winner of the Bay State circuit. He will have to face the hardest field of the season at Framingham, but ought to win, as his custom now is to beat all comers.

HOYLE QUILTS HIS POST AT CORNELL
Ithaca, Aug. 14.—One week after the appointment of John Hoyle as assistant coach of the Cornell navy under Charles E. Courtney, John Hoyle, who has been building boats for Cornell since 1913 and who has been active as assistant coach for seven years, has filed his resignation with the Athletic Association this morning.

Hoyle contends that he is not getting enough money—his salary, he says, is $1,500—and that he cannot afford to stay here any longer, particularly in view of the fact that he has graduated as a rowing coach, and he will have to leave Cornell at the end of the season.

Hoyle will be free to accept offers from other universities.

CAMPFIRE BACKED TO LAND FUTURITY
Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 14.—Hats at 3 to 5 were made and accepted that Campfire would win the Futurity
Stakes at Belmont Park on Saturday, September 2. With the race three weeks away these wagers would tend to show the confidence race track followers have in the winner, Campfire, and to win the richest event of the American turf.

Because of his victory in the Saratoga Special, which was worth more than $5,000 to the winner, Campfire will have to pick up a penalty in the Futurity. His weight under ordinary conditions would be 120 pounds.

WHITE AND WELSH ON BATTLE SCENE
Denver, Colo., Aug. 14.—Charles White and Freddie Welsh have arrived here to prepare for their championship bout on Labor Day. White has decided to begin training tomorrow at Colorado Springs. Welsh probably will work out at Manitou.

Flyer Spencer Makes Bow at Revere Oval

TONIGHT'S REVERE CARD.
25-Mile Motor-Paced Race—Starters: George Wiley, Syracuse, N. Y.; Leon Didier, Paris; George Beres, Paris.

Special Sprint Match—Starters: Arthur Spencer, Toronto; Alf. Goulet, Australia; Reggie McManus, Austro-lia.

Amateur and professional events.
Arthur Spencer of Toronto, conqueror of Frank Kramer and numerous other luminaries of the bike world, in recent encounters at the Newark, N. J., Velodrome, makes his bow at the Revere Cycle Track tonight in a special match race against Alf. Goulet, and Reggie McManus, the two Australian speed marvels.

Spencer, just up from the amateur class, opened the eyes of Newark fans a week ago by decisively defeating the redoubtable Kramer. Tonight Spencer faces two of the best sprinters of the present day.

Goulet, riding against Kramer at the beach oval last Monday night could hardly be figured upon, and, if Spencer succeeds in beating him, he must be off that last been said about him. McManus is best known here because of his sensational riding in six-day races.

Another feature of the evening's card will be the twenty-five-mile motor-paced race between George Wiley and the two Parisian boys, Leon Didier and George Beres.

Western night Manager Butler will put on the annual Golden Wheel contest, in one of the most prize stakes in cycling.
